STAFF AND MANAGEMENT TRAINING WEBINARS FOR SCHOOLS AND OTHER EDUCATION PROGRAMS PRESENTED FOR YOUR ORGANIZATION BY LARRY ROBBIN

Executive Director of Robbin and Associates

"CASAS is the most widely used education competency-based testing system in the United States. CASAS is a nonprofit organization, and its assessments are approved by the US Department of Education and the US Department of Labor. CASAS occupies a distinct intersection between education and workforce development. This overlap across systems is reflected by the variety of attendees at our annual conference, the CASAS National Summer Institute.

Larry Robbin has presented in person and through webinars many times at the CASAS Summer Institute to standing-room-only crowds in virtual and in-person presentations. Larry is one of the most popular presenters at our conferences. He has the ability to ensure his presentations always encompass, affect, and inspire all groups represented in his audiences. He presents practical solutions on a broad variety of topics — all supported by sound theories and substantiated by his vast personal and professional experiences.

Attendees know they will acquire original ideas from Larry's unique point of view about how to serve learners more effectively regardless of their circumstances — whether they are youth or adults, people in poverty and people with various kinds of barriers to education and employment. His expertise and compassion continually serve his audiences well. I highly recommend his training for any organizations involved in education."

"I have used the training services of Larry Robbin many times over the years. Most recently, I asked Larry to do a virtual keynote for a large gathering of counselors, administrators and teachers for our regional education consortium. Larry also did two webinars for us. One focused on new strategies for improving our work with businesses and the other focused on innovative ideas for improving our collaborations and partnerships. The feedback from these presentations was excellent! Larry is a crowd-pleaser! His knowledge and style combine with his ability to show the heart while speaking from the heart. He is extraordinarily authentic, gives real examples, and always leaves a group with tools that can be utilized immediately. He has an in-depth knowledge of the challenges faced by people working in education and he can provide new, creative and practical ways to overcome them. If you are looking for a trainer or speaker for your education program students, staff and/or management, I highly recommend Larry Robbin."
